To whom it may concern

Gherson worked last year at Woolworths Silveroakscrossings as a till operator from the 24 September 2008 till 27 September 2008, for the duration of the Stike. He was committed to the work that was given to him, and did his best in learning the tills and the procedures that is required to operate a till.

He was always friendly and neatly dressed. He was willing to help out when there was an emergency. Although he was a bit shy, he adapted quickly to the enviroment he was in.

I wish him the best in life.

Warm Regards
